

FISCAL NOTE

TO: Chief Clerk of the Senate
Chief Clerk of the House

FROM: James A. Davenport, Executive Director

DATE: March 20, 1995

SUBJECT: SB 999 - HB 1025

This bill, if enacted, will amend the law regarding written directives and permits to carry handguns. The bill, among other things, makes background investigations by a sheriff permissive and restricts the scope of such investigations.

The fiscal impact on local governments from enactment of this bill in and of itself is estimated to be minimal since the provisions of the bill are permissive.

The fiscal impact from enactment of this bill is estimated to be a decrease in local government expenditures and revenues to the extent less background investigations are conducted by sheriffs which will reduce expenses incurred and will reduce revenues received for fees charged to applicants by such sheriffs to conduct the investigations. A reasonable estimate of the decrease in expenditures and revenues cannot be determined but is estimated not to be significant.

This is to duly certify that the information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "James A. Davenport". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of the first and last names being capitalized and prominent.

James A. Davenport, Executive Director